Summer is here, Is your account information up to date?

Things are changing and we want to make sure we have your updated information. If you ever want to know how your account is set up, or if changes need to be made, please call or stop by the credit union to verify your information. We want to ensure we have your account set up the way you want it. You may have had some life changes happen and need to update the account. That's ok, we are here to help. Call us for more information.

We also know addresses may change, phone numbers may change, along with email addresses. If your contact information has changed, complete the Change of contact information form or the Change of address form provided in our secure online banking portal.

The credit union will be closed Thursday, July 4th 2024

Mortgage loans are now offered through Brazos Star and Tru Home Solutions. We make home ownership and home refinances a breeze. Answers to your questions are just a phone call or text message away.
